CONSTITUTION

Collier Street United Church

1. Name

The name of the community of faith/congregation shall be Collier Street United Church (CSUC).

2. Preamble

- 2.1 The ministry and mission of CSUC is rooted in the Reformed tradition of which the United Church of Canada, the former Presbyterian, Congregational and Methodist were key players. CSUC's heritage of Methodist shapes its worship and witness in community.
- 2.2 The Constitution of CSUC is intended to liberate and enable the people of God, the privilege of exercising ministry as the body of Christ, through worship, connecting, community, leadership, mentorship, growth, and stewardship. The Constitution shows how we organize and operate through the leading of God's Spirit in Barrie and beyond.

3. The Church Board

- 3.1 The Church Board shall serve as the governing body of CSUC, in order to fulfill its mission and ministry as outlined in the Manual of the United Church of Canada.
- 3.2 The Church Board shall oversee and guide the life and work of CSUC as approved by the congregation in partnership with and oversight of the Shining Waters Regional Council.
- 3.3 The membership of the Church Board shall consist of fifteen (15) members of the congregation, plus any settled Ministry Personnel or Regional designate, as follows:
 - Six (6) Elders, comprising of the following: Chair (1), Chair-Elect (1), Secretary (1), Regional Council Delegation (1), Trustees (1) and M&P Representative (1);
 - Nine (9) Elders representing the teams: Worship, Connecting and Community (4), Leadership, Mentorship and Growth (3) and Time, Treasure and Talents (2); and
 - Any settled Ministry Personnel settled in the congregation or Regional designate.
- 3.4 The members of the Church Board shall be recommended to the nominations team by groups: (e.g. Worship, Connecting and Community; UCW; Leadership, Mentorship and Growth; Time, Treasure and Talents). The names will be presented to the congregation for approval at a Congregational Meeting (normally the Annual General Meeting). The Chair-Elect/Chair, Secretary and Treasurer will be nominated by the Church Board.
- 3.5 All Church Board members shall have voting rights as indicated in the Manual.
- 3.6 The Executive of the Church Board shall be the Chair, Secretary, Ministry and Personnel Chair or representative and the Minister, who shall make decisions on behalf of the Board when it does not meet [see Appendix A].

CONSTITUTION

Collier Street United Church

3.7 Vacancies on the Church Board – vacancies may be created when a member resigns from the office, whether on personal grounds or when requested to do so by the congregation, or by the Region. A person who misses three consecutive meetings without adequate reason/cause may be asked to vacate the position. The Board may nominate persons to fill vacant positions as indicated in the Manual.

3.8 Board Position Descriptions:

3.8.1

a) Chair (1 year as Chair-Elect, 2 years as Chair)

The main duty of the Chair is to preserve order, take the vote, announce decision and when necessary, pronounce censure for meetings of the Board and Congregation. The Chair may introduce any business relevant to the Church Board, and express personal views on any business under discussion, after vacating the Chair. The Chair will conduct meetings in accordance with the Rules of Debate and Order of The United Church Manual. (See terms and meanings for more information).

b) Secretary

The Secretary will record the minutes of Church Board and Congregational Meetings, receive and write correspondence on behalf of those two bodies as well as prepare and circulate or make available agendas, reports prior to those meetings and preserve all papers. The Secretary shall submit to the Region appropriate information annually.

c) Regional Council Representative

S/he will be CSUC's representative at the meetings of the Region. S/he will provide a report of Shining Waters Regional Council matters to the Church Board including a summary report following each meeting of Shining Waters Regional Council and, as needed, assist the Secretary in communicating to the courts of the United Church.

d) Trustee Representative

The Trustee Representative will support the work of the Church Board with the Secretary/Treasurer or designate attending meetings; may be invited to provide a quarterly summary of investments or financials [see Appendix B].

e) Ministry and Personnel (M&P) Representative

The Ministry and Personnel Committee shall be a consultative and supportive team for the staff, for members and adherents of the Congregation. Its membership of 3 to 5 persons shall be full members of the Congregation. One of its Co-team leaders shall sit on the Church Board [see Appendix C].

3.8.2 Teams of the Board

a) Worship, Connecting and Community Team

The team shall consist of 4 to 10 members, with two (2) Co-team leaders; the team shall have four (4) representatives/elders on the Board; two (2) Co-team leaders; one (1) UCW representative and one (1) other.

The work of the team includes:

E – Vision, Mission and Core Values

OUR VISION

Our dream is to be a community with open hearts,
open minds and open will as we become:
stronger through various styles of worship;
deeper through discipleship;
warmer through unconditional welcome, fellowship
richer through radical inclusion;
broader through ministry to all ages and stages of life; and larger through intentionally inviting others on this journey of faith.

OUR MISSION

CORE VALUES

Connection Community Creativity Inclusion Love Transformation Hope

F – Terms and Meanings

adherent

A person who is attached to a congregation and contributes regularly to its life and work but is not formally a member of the United Church of Canada.

church board

The Church Board is the unified governing model of the Collier Street United. It makes decisions on behalf of the congregation and recommends to the congregation matters of ministry and mission.

church board members

A Board member is an Elder who maintains oversight of all the affairs of the congregation. The work includes discussion and decision on mission priorities, projects, committees, building, finances, retreats, etc., with each decision seeking to fulfill the mission/core values of the Church.

In summary, the Board member will:

1. Pray and participate in the life of the governing body, the Board.
2. Clarify issues and directions;
3. Discuss and decide on plans/strategies for projects/priorities etc.;
4. Ensure accountability and good stewardship of resources (building and personnel);
5. Provide oversight (especially through M&P);
6. Drive continuous improvement within CSUC;
7. Maintain integrity and equanimity (composure) in honest and respectful sharing;
8. Respect and honour confidentiality including board deliberations and decisions; and
9. Support and encourage faithful leadership.

The main requirement would be “to participate intentionally” in the life of the governing body of CSUC. See, United Church of Canada Manual for more information.

CONSTITUTION

Collier Street United Church

church court

One of the three organizational bodies in the United Church that have deliberative and decision-making powers. The three courts are the pastoral charge/communities of faith (CSUC), regions, and General Council.

church board chair

- The Board Chair maintains and facilitates good board leadership and governance; setting the tone for the meetings. The Board Chair works collaboratively with the Minister, Board Secretary to model and mold the board's culture and work, influencing the direction and priorities of the board, focusing on what is best for the CSUC family. The Board Chair is an active role that engages the board members, building upon each member's individual strengths and supports the well-being of the congregation.
- Leadership and Agenda – The Board Chair is a leader who keeps full board work focused on the CSUC's mission, vision, and strategic direction.
- The Board Chair works collaboratively with the Minister and the Secretary to establish meeting agendas.
- meetings management – serving as leader and facilitator, the Board Chair presides over the board and congregational meetings and calls special meetings with appropriate consultation with the minister. The Board Chair actively engages the board members, encouraging them to participate, share information, moving toward a decision that is in keeping with vision, mission and core values of CSUC.
- team's direction – the Board Chair guides the co-team leaders to align committee work with the congregation's vision and goals and serves as ex-officio member of all committees.
- board conduct – the Board Chair sets a positive, energized tone for board meetings by modeling, articulating, and upholding the rules of conduct that are outlined in the by-laws; setting a high standard for board conduct. The Board Chair addresses issues regarding confidentiality, conflict of interest, and other pertinent board policies in an appropriate and timely manner.
- board learning and development – The Board Chair assists the Minister in orienting new board members. The Board Chair helps to facilitate board development by helping board members assess their knowledge and strengths. The Board Chair helps to organize opportunities for continuing education for board members to develop their individual or collective skill sets.
- beyond meetings – Outside of meetings, the Board Chair has more responsibilities including working with teams and the Minister, in developing the board members' skills, and planning for succession. In these settings the Board chair embodies the spirit of the organization and continually keeps the integrity and goals of the organization at the forefront of every suggestion or recommendation.
- vote – the Board Chair only votes in a tie situation.

This is the governance structure of the United Church of Canada, where the Church Board is related to and accountable to the congregation and vice versa. This also means that representatives from one body (e.g., the congregation) are members of the next body (e.g., the region). Likewise, the region consists of representatives from congregations, and the General Council consists of representatives from the regions. Each council (body) holds meetings for the purpose of common agreement in faith and practice.

co-team leader

CONSTITUTION

Collier Street United Church

This is two people sharing the leadership of the team. The main goal is to organize the team, conduct the meetings and follow through on matters relating to the roles and responsibilities of the team. The Co-Team Leader shall:

- In consultation with the Minister or Board Chair or Board Secretary or Team members, schedule dates, times and location for meetings;
- Ensure meetings are called (at least 4 times a year) and held in accordance with CSUC's mandate and mission priorities; and agendas are prepared for each meeting;
- Ensure the meeting agenda and relevant documents are circulated to the members of the team 3 to 5 days in advance of the meeting or in a timely manner;
- Officiate and conduct meetings;
- Provide leadership and ensure team members are aware of their obligations and that the team is faithful with its responsibilities;
- Ensure there is enough time during the meeting to fully discuss and decide on items on the agenda;
- Ensure that discussion on agenda items is on topic, productive, and professional;
- Ensure minutes are complete and accurate, retained, included, reviewed at the next meeting and signed;
- Chair in camera meetings as required; and
- Be a full member who attends Church Board as indicated in the constitution.

elder

A person elected by the pastoral charge who is entrusted with leadership among the whole congregation. Elders are members of the Church Board and are full members of the United Church of Canada.

governance

The structure of authority and processes of decision-making used by a congregation.

nominations team

This team shall comprise of three (3) to four (4) members of the congregation appointed by the Church Board and will be active when necessary.

task force or working group

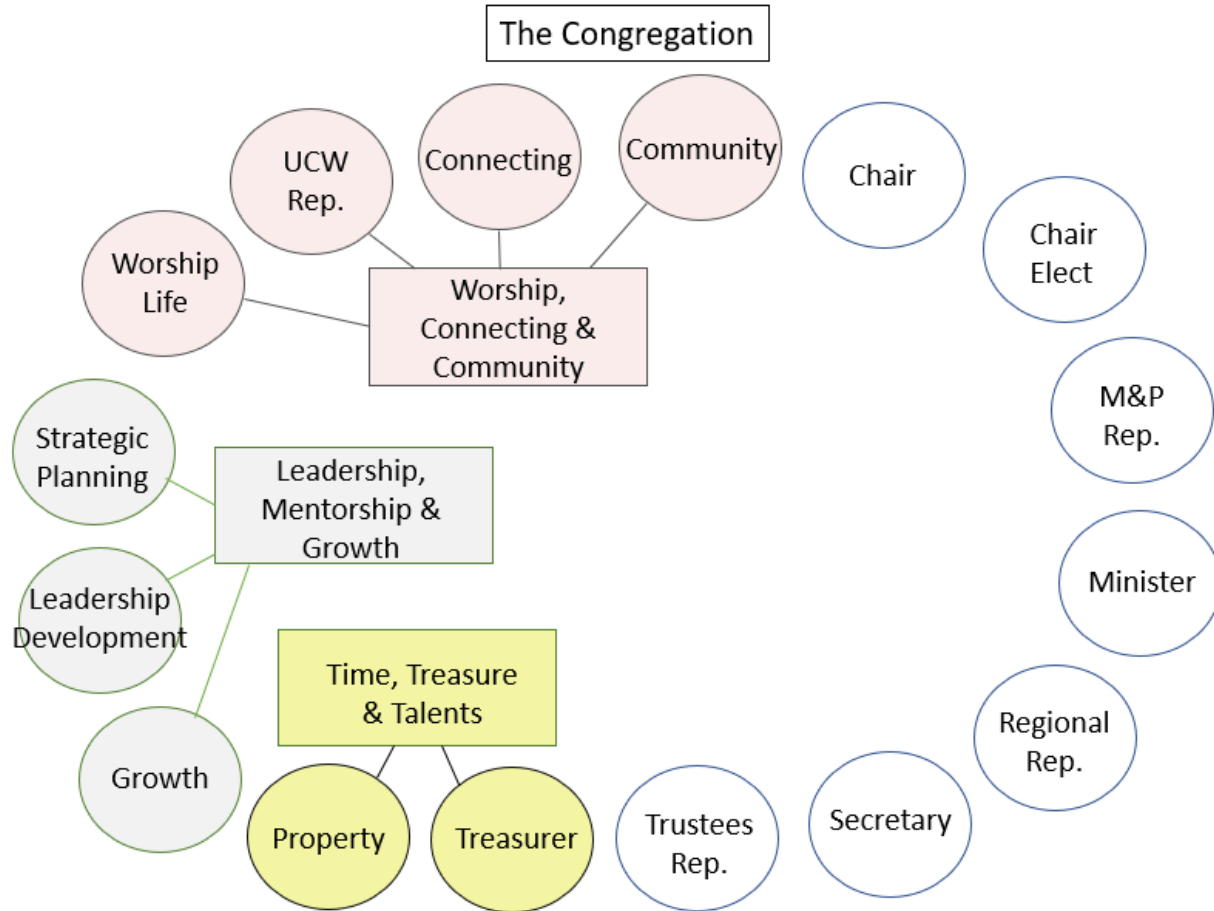

This is the group that has specific work done in an outlined timeframe (generally not more than 6 months). It can be established by the Board or teams. The establishing group determines its work and sets its guidelines. It reports to the group or body which establishes its work.

team

This is the group/body that is working intentionally to fulfil the mission and vision of CSUC. It can have at least 3 to 10 members/adherents.
